Cheerful Hearts

As Thanksgiving passed, we looked back at this year with cheerful hearts.

Ministry is growing with the three seminary classes started last January, the doubling of the garden in Gracias, addition of two volunteers partnering with us to teach the Nutrition classes and doing ministry in La Esperanza and Gracias.

Sof Alvarez our intern is growing and taking more responsibilities. With his experience in Re-generation programs and inter-healing ministries he now has all of the curriculum in Spanish to start building the foundation team for our center. Our assistant Digna Lara is growing, learning, and becoming a greater part of Heaven's Reach.

news updates

We will receive another intern this month, Sharon Rindorf. She will be working with the expecting mothers and helping us expand our local impact with the villages.

We received two visits by Don and Connie Vickery. They are exploring Honduras as their next field assignment. In November we laid the ground work for some exciting news to be announced next year.

We discovered over 15 villages with no Christian work. We have since started reaching them and look forward to a large advance into those villages next year. Some of these villages are surprisingly close to where we live others are as far as four hours away on the same bad roads Honduras or any third world country is known for.

New Places

We are very thankful for all of these people who have come along side of us and are helping to reach the lost.

We are also thankful that God has shown us

Praise Reports 2013: We received a Mantero sport SUV, the garden in La Esperanza has been flourishing and the harvest has been plentiful, the garden in Gracias has doubled in size, the Lord led us to 15 un-reached villages that will now be reached for His glory, I have finished my online classes for the semester with A's, and many souls have been added to the Kingdom of Heaven this year!

Thank you for your prayers and support. It is a spiritual war and we need you to intercede on our behalf for strength, health, family relationships, others to come and help and financial provision.

May God bless you with every kind of heavenly blessings.
